PCA PRESS RELEASE

THE ARABIC LANGUAGE WEBSITE OF THE PERMANENT COURT OF ARBITRATION

THE HAGUE, 30 SEPTEMBER 2016

The Permanent Court of Arbitration (the “PCA”) announces the launch of the Arabic language version of its website (the “Website”).

The Website provides essential information about the PCA’s history, structure, caseload, and services. It also includes the Arabic language texts of the 2012 PCA Arbitration Rules and its commentary (Guide to the 2012 PCA Arbitration Rules), the PCA’s constitutive instruments (the 1899 and 1907 Conventions for Pacific Settlement of International Disputes), and the 1976 and 2010 UNCITRAL Arbitration Rules.

The Website is part of the PCA’s outreach efforts to enhance the availability of its services to the Arabic speaking world. The Website was made possible through the generous funding of Prince Dr. Bandar Bin Salman Bin Mohamed Al-Saud, based on a Memorandum of Understanding concluded with the Secretary-General of the PCA.

To celebrate the launch of the Website, the PCA, in cooperation with the Ambassador of the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia, hosted an event in the Peace Palace in the Netherlands, and in the presence of a number of Arab countries’ ambassadors and arbitration practitioners.

The Website is now available at: <https://pca-cpa.org/ar/home/>
