Honourable Ms. Justice INDU MALHOTRA is a former Judge of the Supreme Court of India (April 2019 - March 2021). She has contributed significantly to the jurisprudence in arbitration, both as a counsel and as a judge. Justice Malhotra was the first woman to be directly elevated from the Bar to the Bench as a Judge of the Supreme Court of India. She was the second woman to be designated as a Senior Counsel by the Supreme Court in 2007, after a gap of over three decades. As the Supreme Court judge, Justice Malhotra authored significant judgments on arbitration matters by laying down: the legal principles to guide the discretion of arbitrators in awarding interest; the principles for invoking the 'group of companies' doctrine in arbitration; applicability of the 'doctrine of separability' in cases where the claims of invalidation or unenforceability of foreign arbitral awards are raised on account of non-payment of stamp duty; clarifying the issue of Conflict of Interest in the appointment of arbitrators; on applicability of period of limitation for filing applications for enforcement of foreign arbitral awards; clarifying that the period of limitation for appointment of arbitrator should not be confused with period of limitation applicable to substantive claims; etc. Justice Malhotra is now practicing as a full-time Arbitrator in domestic and international arbitrations. Justice Malhotra is a Fellow of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators, London. She is empanelled with various arbitral institutions, such as the Mumbai Centre for International Arbitration (MCIA), Singapore International Arbitration Centre (SIAC), Indian Council of Arbitration (ICA), Delhi International Arbitration Centre (DIAC), and Associated Chambers of Commerce and Industry of India (ASSOCHAM). She was a Member of the Panel of Arbitrators of the CIDC - SIAC Arbitration	20 - 04 - 2023

Mrs. DORIT BEINISCH, LL.M. Retired President of the Supreme Court of Israel; Justice of the Supreme Court of Israel (1995-2012); former State Attorney of the State of Israel (the first woman in Israel to hold these positions). Serving as State Attorney, Dorit Beinisch focused on fighting corruption, dealing with issues of human rights based on both Israeli and International Law, and ensuring compliance with the law by police and security forces. As a justice, ruled in numerous cases relating to human rights, minority rights, terrorism and national security. Among her numerous court opinions is a decision holding that parents cannot use corporal punishment against their children; a decision ruling against privatization of prisons in Israel, holding that a privately managed and operated prison violates the constitutional rights to personal freedom and human dignity; and a decision finding that a portion of Israel's Unlawful Combatants Law authorizing administration detentions violated a detainee's rights to liberty, holding that the law should be interpreted in accordance with international law. Dorit Beinisch developed case law doctrine authorizing judges to disqualify evidence on the grounds that it was obtained illegally. Dorit Beinisch stressed in her decisions the importance of protection for the rights of women, children and the weak in society. E-mail: doritbeinisch@beinisch.name.	11 - 01 - 2022
